Additional Trip Information

Major Attraction in Dubai Tour

Explore the Dubai Museum

Located in the historic Al Fahidi Fort, Dubai Museum offers a captivating look into the city's heritage. Inside, you will find exhibits that showcase traditional Bedouin life. You will also see historic trade routes and Dubai's transformation from a small fishing village to a global metropolis. It also has large exhibits that depict life, like models of the past and cultural development of the city.

Visit the Stunning Jumeirah Mosque

One of Dubai's most beautiful mosques, Jumeirah Mosque, is known for its striking white stone architecture and intricate details. Since the mosque allows visitors of other religions, it is among the few mosques where visitors can get a glimpse of Islamic culture and architectural styles. You will be able to take a tour of the mosques with a guide who will give you details concerning the religious practices.

Burj Khalifa

Standing at a towering 828 meters, Burj Khalifa is an architectural marvel and the tallest building in the world. Your visit to the observation deck on the 148th floor is going to provide you with a full 360-degree view of Dubai, the beautiful desert, ocean, and other futuristic buildings of Dubai. The experience includes access to the interactive displays and an immersive multimedia presentation that highlights the building's construction and significance.

Dubai Creek

Dubai Creek is a historic waterway that has played a central role in the city's development. We will take a traditional abra ride, which offers a scenic and authentic way to see the old trading areas and bustling souks. While drifting down the creek, you shall be able to view number of architectures around Dubai, ranging from the old architecture, for example, the shows to the modern ones and the tall buildings that are common in Dubai.

Dubai Mall

As one of the world's largest shopping centers, Dubai Mall is not just a retail paradise but also a hub of entertainment. In addition to many branded as well as affordable outlets, the mall features attractions such as the Dubai Aquarium and Underwater Zoo which offer a view of the aquatic animals. The Ice Rink and KidZania, an interactive edutainment center for children, offer fun for all ages, making it a perfect spot for shopping and leisure.

Tips For Dubai Tour From nepal

The Best Time for Dubai Tour

The best time for dubai tour from nepal is November to March when the weather is pleasantly cool and perfect for exploring the city. During these months, temperatures range from 20°C to 25°C (68°F to 77°F). This makes it an ideal season for outdoor activities such as sightseeing, beach outings, and desert safaris. This period also consists of various festivals and other events in Dubai. Thus, this gives you more chances to enjoy the cultural and entertaining environment of Dubai.

In contrast, the summer months from June to September can be extremely hot, with temperatures often exceeding 40°C (104°F). Outdoor activism can also be very unfavorable due to high temperatures and limited options for sightseeing. If you prefer milder weather and more comfortable conditions, planning your trip between November and March will ensure you make the most of your Dubai adventure.

Visa Information for Your Dubai Tour

Nepali citizens are required to obtain a visa to enter Dubai. It is recommended that you get a tourist visa. You can obtain it through your travel agents. They will guide you through documentation and also helps in easing your process. Typically, you will need a passport with at least six months' validity, a recent photograph, and possibly additional documentation such as proof of travel insurance or accommodation.

It's essential to start the visa application process well in advance of your travel dates to avoid any last-minute issues. Many Dubai Tour include visa assistance as part of their service, so check with your provider to see if they offer this convenience. Ensuring your visa is in order before your trip will help you avoid any delays or complications upon arrival in Dubai.

Currency Exchange

In Dubai, the local currency is the UAE Dirham (AED). It's wise to exchange some Nepali Rupees (NPR) for AED before your departure to cover initial expenses, such as transportation and small purchases. You can exchange money at the airport upon arrival, but the rates may not be as favorable as those at local exchange bureaus or banks.

While credit and debit cards are widely accepted throughout Dubai Tour, having some cash on hand is useful for transactions in local markets or smaller establishments. You can also use ATMs in Dubai to withdraw AED as needed. If you want to ensure a smooth financial experience during your trip, you should plan ahead and manage your currency exchange.

Frequently Asked Questions
